Hi Stefan,

I think this is the wrong forum for this topic, it would be better to submit a ticket to the GSI linux group by sending a mail to "linux-service@gsi.de" or via the ticket system https://it-tts.gsi.de/otrs/customer.pl

In case you went to log in to 64 bit machines you can use the lxlenny64 which will always send you to a 64 bit machine.

regards

Mohammad
