Dear colleagues, for a workshop we should really aim for getting ALL the groups together in order to make it worth the effort. Therefore, at this point, I think it's a very good idea to have this SeeVogh meeting.

Furthermore, I believe it's an excellent idea to have a meeting at the next collaboration meeting since there we will probably have everone in the same place. So, kind of like the third option presented by Ivan, let's do this anyway...like as a bare minimum

Michael
