Dear all,

Although, the plan is to move the PandaRoot meetings to Wednesdays in the future, there is still a request from several keypersons to schedule the next meeting to another day of the week. Hence, as exception, I propose to schedule the next meeting to

Tuesday, 10th of February, 10:00-12:00, EVO

(e.g. to the original day of the week). The meeting will be dedicated to global tracking.

Note that the following meetings will be held bi-weekly on Wednesday....

Please let me know, if this is fine with everyone (in particular those who are involved in the tracking part).

Kind wishes,

Johan
