
Subject: Re: Study of energy loss of GEM!

Posted by Radoslaw Karabowicz on Tue, 26 May 2009 11:50:03 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Dear guys,

there is a plan to have at least 4-5 bit ADC information taken from the GEM detectors.

This information will be used only to get better point resolution and is not suitable for any PID considerations.

In the central region a particle flying perpendicular to the plane will be firing at least 3 to 4 strips, and the ADC will be used to calculate the center of gravity.

yours,
radek
