Hi!

I just wanted to know whether there is a common 'database' for particle data, i.e. something like the package 'PDT' in the old framework.

What I'd like to access are e.g. masses for the standard particles like e,mu,pi ect.

Thanks in advance,

Klaus

Hi,

you can try TDataBasePDG in ROOT

<http://root.cern.ch/root/html/TDatabasePDG.html>

Hi Mohammad!

Thanks, that seems to work ... exactly what I was looking for

Cheers,

Klaus
