Dear all,

Although, some of us are still on holidays (including myself), I think it is a good idea to "slowly" start our regular PandaRoot meetings again. There are already quite some "hot" discussions going on on the forum, from which I read that the need for a meeting is there.

My proposal: next week Wednesday, 10:00, EVO.... Points for the agenda are welcome!

Kind wishes,

Johan

Considering that the two central weeks of august are vacation time in Italy (-> university departments are closed), I will not attend to that meeting, and I think maybe even some other italians could have the same problem.
Regards

Hi,

What about a week later?

J.

Dear all,

Ok, I got the message.... The meeting will be moved one week later (see title line of this message). I will post the agenda to this forum in due time.

Greetings,

Johan.
