Hi all gridka family,

I have a stupid question.

If I didn't get a careful memo of my main job ID after submitting,
How can I check my submit ID, which I definitely sent to machine.

Now, alternatively, in order to check it, I'm looking whether all of my log files and output archives are already arrived or not inside the output directory.

That is something like bumbling amateurism.

Please teach me some professional way!

Thanks,
Donghee
