Dear all,

for the holiday time let's take a break. Since the 6th January is vacation for several countries, let's meet again on Tuesday 13th January at 14:30 CET (due to teaching duties I cannot be present at 14:00). If you have a topic for discussions to propose, or would like to present some results, just let me know.

In the meantime, I wish you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year!
