Hi all,

usually PandaRoot meetings start at 14:00
(on Wednesdays, and the next meeting will be next week, April 23).

However, we have a difficulty in the next few months in a sense that one of the core developers (Stefano) must attend every day from 13:00 to 16:00 an intensive German language course (he will have to handle ~40 oral exams in German in August).

So, the question is:

would it be possible to change the meeting time to 10:00?

In the beginning (about 1 1/2 years ago) this was our starting time, but we changed it due to constraints for Pavia friends. But maybe now it might be possible to change back?

Please think about it for a moment.

A poll is added.

cheers, Soeren

Meeting Time(total votes: 7)

YES, 10:00 on Wednesday is fine. 4/(57%)
NO, for me it must stay 14:00 3/(43%)

Hi Soeren,

as for me, the earliest possible time on Wednesdays in this term is 12:00 because of the teaching duties.

I didn't vote in the poll, since I _don't_insist_ on sticking to 14:00, but 10:00 is not good for me.

regards,
ola

Hi!

Next week (23.4.) I will not be available on wednesday, since I have to see the dentist

Cheers, Sebastian.

Hi,

For the KVlers 10:00 is a problem, since at 10:30 there is another weekly meeting everyone is going to.... but if most prefer it, I can check whether the KVI meeting can be moved to another time.

Johan.

Hello everyone,

I already put a course to Wednesday before lunch. I'd prefer 12:00 or later.

Greetings, Ralf.
